ALL RADNOR RESIDENTS INVITED TO MEET THE CANDIDATES AT SEPT. 14TH COMMUNITY RALLY FOR CHANGE

Fenimore Woods will be venue for residents to meet local Democratic candidates, hear from state, national campaigns

September 2, 2008, Radnor, PA: Radnor Township residents are saving the date of Sunday, September 14, 2008, when the Radnor Democratic Committee will host a community Rally for Change. Several of Radnor's elected officials will be in attendance, including Congressman Joe Sestak and State Representatives Greg Vitali and Bryan Lentz.

Seventh Ward Commissioner John Fisher said of the event, "This will be an opportunity for people to meet their elected officials and learn what issues they're working on. Residents will be able to look up which ward they live in, and get more involved this election cycle."

Tsiwen Law of Radnor's Fourth Ward, one of the planners, said, "We're eager to learn who will be here on behalf of the Obama-Biden ticket. We've invited Pennsylvania's Auditor General Jack Wagner, and John Morganelli, the Democratic candidate for State Attorney General. PA Senate and House candidates Daylin Leach and Tom Quinn will also be in attendance. We hope to have someone affiliated with each of the candidates who will be on the ballot in November."

Bruce Bikin, Chairman of the Radnor Democratic Committee, said, "We are thrilled to be hosting this event, which will run from 2 until 4 on Sunday afternoon, September 14th. We'll have information, snacks, fun and games for the kids. We've got voter registration forms, lawn signs, and more."

Fenimore Woods is the park located at Eagle and Paul Roads, just off King of Prussia Road. Overflow parking will be available check with the Radnor Democratic Committee closer to the date for exact locations.

While there is no charge for this event, Township residents are asked to RSVP so the organizers know how many people to expect.
